THE FALCON AND THE LADY

by Lord Cadfan ap Morgan Godrudd

I had a dream upon the eve of war
In which I stood within a sunny glade
Encircled by a forest, dark and hoar,
And over and about me fell the shade
Of a great ash-tree that stood towering o'er
And in its branches sat a falcon bold,
Whose every feather shone like burnished gold.

Around me in my dream there stood a throng
Of kings and princes, clad in war's attire
And each one spoke beseechingly and long
Unto that bird, and each swung in a gyre
A jewelled lure upon a silken thong
But he remained aloof, and from on high
Regarded them with fierce, disdainful eye.

Then to that clearing came a lady fair,
As slender as a wand, and in whose eyes
Shone patience, kindness, love, and courage rare;
Her countenance was beautiful and wise —
Her equal you could not find anywhere!
And when the falcon saw her, with a cry
He left his perch, and unto her did fly.

He came to her, and lit upon her glove,
And proudly looked around, as if to say:
"Thou foolish falconers! 'Tis only love
For her, and not your lures, that makes me stay
And pledge my talons to her on this day!"
And then I heard the blowing of a horn,
And I awoke, to find that it was morn.

Now, dreams in daylight often fade away
Yet this did not: for all men know of how
The flacon shields of Calontir that day
Unto Queen Eislinn made a solemn vow
To fight for love of her, and not for pay.
The Falcon and the Lady! They shall gleam
In Honour's rolls, as long as men can dream.

Duchess Eislinn the Patient, the ladywife of Duke Tallymar of the Midrealm died at 3:00 am the morning of March 5th, 1988 of cancer. She had many friends in this Kingdom and will be sorely missed.

The Falcon and the Lady:

'At the 16th Pennsic War, held in AS XXII, the forces of the Kingdom of Calontir fought with the Middle Kingdom, but not for it: They had pledged their swords exclusively to Her Majesty Eislinn the Patient, Queen of the Midrealm, a noble and well-beloved lady who was at that time sorely beset by illness. In my eight years in the Society I have seen few acts which rivalled this one for gallantry and chivalry.'--by the author, Lord Cadfan ap Morgan Godrudd of Ansteorra -- from the A&S issue of The Pale, the newsletter of the Midrealm.

Chivalry Tournament

In a moment of extreme weakness, Master Odan der Halogaland has declared he will host a Chivalry Tournament on his country manor east of Caerthe in the Outlands. This will occur on the weekend of May 7-8. His lady has been unable to contain such madness. Therefore, Master Odan and Lady Alianna do welcome all who may visit.

The location is approximately 30 miles east of Caerthe, off I-70, exit #310 (see map).

This will be a camping event but there is no shade. Please bring your own. The site is discreetly wet. (It is on private land but a mundane official lives across the road.) This is near a very small town. Within a few miles there are a small grocery store which is not open on Sunday, a convenience-type store, gas stations, and a small motel.

There will be Rattan, Rapier and Shinai lists. These will be run as chivalry tournaments on Sat. Only chivalry will count, not how many wins or losses. Chivalry will be judged by a ladies' gallery. Sunday there will be a special list to celebrate the day plus some other interesting melees.

If there is interest, there will be backgammon and/or chess tournaments. Also various other diversities are planned for adults, children and even Dwarves.

Saturday evening there will be a feast followed by a bardic circle. The bardic is not a competition. This is for fun. Old war stories and SCA filk songs are encouraged. The feast will be done by Lady Alianna and will consist of the following:

Various Breads and Cheeses	Sundry Side Dishes
French Onion Soup	Spiced Fruit
Smoked Beasties and Fowl	Trifle
Grilled Dragon Bones (spare ribs)

(Rumor: Alianna has a Jewish ancestor somewhere who is terrified everyone will starve.)

Fees:

Site fee: $2.00 per person to cover the cost of sanitary facilities.

Feast fee: $6.00 for adults, $3.00 for children under 12. Please make reservations by May 1. Make checks payable to Georgia Acker and send to:
P.O. Box 632
Strasburg, Colorado 80136
(If you send a SASE, a receipt will be sent to you.)

People's Fair

Come one, come all!!! Once again, the SCA will be at the Capitol Hill People's Fair, held this year on Saturday, June 4th, and Sunday, June 5th. This year we are in charge of the Renaissance area and wish to make a most impressive display of what the Society is and what our talents are.

There will be a rattan prize tourney, dancing demos, and musical entertainment. Society members who have handmade items they wish to display and/or sell through the SCA booth must contact Mistress Ursula or Mistress Morrigan in advance.

To prepare for the dancing demos, there will be biweekly dance practices on Fridays followed by a potluck supper commencing in late April. Contact Baroness Katherine for details.

Help is needed for site set up, security, manning the demo booth and clean up. In addition, to provide higher visibility for the SCA, we have offered to help in the Fair's information booth and pop sales booth. Volunteers for any of these activities should contact Mistress Ursula.

Plans are also under way to prepare banners and signs for the Renaissance area. Anyone with ideas or time to contribute, should contact Mistress Morrigan.

Further details in May. Yours enthusiastically,

Mistress Ursula d'Arcy

GO TO VALHALLA!
Such a deal we have for you! If you or any SCA member ever shops in Valhalla (Manitou Springs), PLEASE tell the owner that you belong to the SCA. He has offered to put 10% of all SCA purchases toward the price of an impressive war memorial-trophy-mug-stein which will be given to the Barony once its cost is covered. NOT BAD!! He also has amber.
